Change your Frequency - change your Life

WELCOME TO HU ENERGY FASHION!

At Hu Energy Fashion we believe that if you change your frequency, you change your life. We have been involved in the research of cutting edge Subtle Energy Technologies since 2000 in order to create unique, powerful, aesthetically attractive Energy Fashion Jewelry and Clothing. At the dawn of this amazing 21st Century, Designer and President of Hu Energy Fashion Shadow Sky recognized that as a planet, we are awakening to a whole new level of consciousness—a new world. Wanting to participate in this dawning of a new spirituality, he started his own spiritual quest into aesthetics, quantum physics and fashion so that he could help others benefit from this knowledge and change their lives. As a result of this transformation, Shadow Sky became energized and connected to his source of intuition and inspiration. Becoming vibrantly alive, he activated his mission of creating new spiritual tools fusing aesthetics, science and spirituality into Hu Energy Jewelry that is helping others to go through the process faster and easier! In 2007 this quest materialized into our most advanced product – “Love is the One” Hu Energy Pendant. Our Hu Energy Pendant is designed to help you come home to your Higher Self. Home, where you become a source of life for others just by being your True Self! “Love is the One” carries a truly transformational, balanced and beautiful energy formula, consisting of 12 higher harmonics frequencies. We are constantly creating new designs to include the latest styles. One of the unique features of the Hu Energy Pendant is that we can download new higher harmonics frequencies to your pendant like upgrading the software on your computer. That means you always have the latest and freshest energies coming from our Energy Design line. And it's FREE. If you already purchased our pendant – enjoy! If not – give it a try, there's a chance you will like it...a lot!

Hu Energy Fashion

CHANGE YOUR FREQUENCY – CHANGE YOUR LIFE!

Hu Energy Fashion, Energy Jewelry Company, a forerunner of the New Age in the world of fashion jewelry, designs and manufactures awareness lifestyle brand energy jewelry to fit different lifestyles, whether it is yoga, entertainment, fashion or spirituality, or all of the above. We named our company and our pendants after “Hu”, the ancient name for a Supreme Being (Prime Creator/Mover) as it expresses itself in nature. Our “Love is the One” Collection is charged with a very special energy formula containing 12 higher harmonics, formulated especially for this line by the Oxygen Research Institute which uses the latest in Scalar Technology and cutting edge quantum physics research.

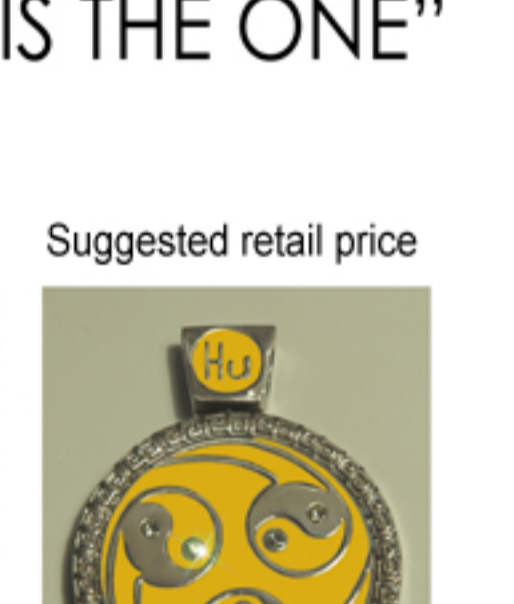

Using fundamental concepts and the latest breakthroughs in Quantum Physics, Developmental Ecology, Scalar and Bio-Energetics and combining them with ancient knowledge of Sacred geometry from the long gone civilizations of Lemuria, Atlantis, Maya, Sumer and Egypt, we are creating elegant, cutting edge pendants, bracelets, earrings and rings that exude Divine Hu Energy – a true synthesis of science and spirit.

We are bringing new jewelry concepts to developing markets that are multi-functional and multi-dimensional, jewelry that brings beauty and attraction to fashionistas and peace of mind to the spiritually inclined. As well, Hu Energy Jewelry neutralizes the harmful electro-magnetic radiation of smog that surrounds all of us all the time. By creating an invisible cocoon around a person's body, Hu Energy accessories allow the wearer to utilize his/her native Life Force (Chi) to the fullest, without being vampirized by negative energies. At different times in different traditions, attempts have been made to harness the Life Force Energy (called Chi or Prana), originally only available to a select few. Considered the SAP (Sub Atomic Particles) of the Tree of Life, this energy was used by the Feng Shui practitioners in China. The great pharaohs of Egypt harnessed this same energy for their initiation ceremonies in the Great Pyramid. The unique advantage of our jewelry is that we have scientific proof of the existence of Subtle Energy in every one of our pieces, and we have well documented evidence of this energy's beneficial influence, provided by scientists in the field of Subtle Energy research. Shadow Sky, the Designer and President of our company explains how the Hu Energy Pendant came into being: “I used sacred geometry symbols to create a subtle energy ‘engine’. For this pendant I used 3 Yin Yang symbols, which created another shape between them: The Fire Wheel, or Tomoe. Each Yin Yang symbol has 2 cubic zirconium in it, so overall 6 on each side. The reason I did this is to fixate the frequencies, as crystals and diamonds are the best at keeping the ‘memory’ of the information imprinted on them.

“The pendant is two sided. Each side has a different color which are the Aura colors. The outer rim of the circle, which contains the above symbols, has the engraving of the letter ‘G’, which also has a strong resonance. ‘G’ represents the giver and receiver of gifts, the most generous, very good-hearted, a mysterious hidden source of wealth and wisdom. It is also represents the center of our Milky Way Galaxy – Hurub Ku. This symbol, also reminiscent of the Yin-Yang, is the emblem of the Mayan God Hunab Ku, the supreme creator god of the Maya. It represents the solar calendar, balanced forces and perfection. It is all about love – Zero Point Field that is above all frequencies, as it has no frequency in itself. All this is essentially based on symbolic transformation of subtle energies from higher dimensions (harmonics) to the 3rd, physical dimension.

The Hu Energy Pendant is a harmonizer between a person's own energy output, or lack of it, and other incoming energies (negative or positive). It balances them so only the good energy remains. Basically, it lets the person be who he/she really is without negative influences. It lets the person to utilize his/her native, unimpeded, abundant Hu (Chi) energy and lets the body to organize its energy flows in harmonious way. Change Your Frequency - Change Your Life!

Welcome to Hu Energy Fashion, Energy Jewelry company, a forerunner of the New Era in the world of Fashion Jewelry. Hu Energy Fashion designs and manufactures Energy Jewelry for different Lifestyles markets, like Yoga, Entertainment, Fashion, Organic and Spirituality.

Using fundamental concepts and the latest breakthroughs in Quantum Physics, developmental ecology, Scalar and Bio-Energetics research and combining them with Ancient knowledge of Sacred Geometry from long gone civilizations of Lemuria, Atlantis, Maya, Sumer and Egypt, we are creating elegant, cutting edge pendants, bracelets, earrings and rings designs that are exuding Divine Hu Energy – a true synthesis of Science and Spirit. Our premise is that consciousness is composed of two radically different “minds” – the familiar, biological, computer like mind made of neurons and a much older, literally infinite mind made of harmonically interacting quantum resonances – in effect, an exquisite form of sub-atomic music! We are bringing new concepts of jewelry to new developing markets that is multi-functional multi-dimensional, jewelry that brings Beauty and Attraction to fashionistas and Peace of Mind to Yoga and Spiritually inclined, as well neutralizing harmful electro-magnetic radiation smog that surrounds all of us, all same time. By creating an invisible cocoon around person's body Hu Energy accessories allowing the wearer to utilize his/her native Life Force (Chi) to the fullest, without being vampirized by negative energies.

The unique advantage we have with our jewelry is that we have documented, solid scientific proof of the existence of the Subtle Energy in our jewelry and it's beneficial influence on a human being provided by authorities in the field of Subtle Energy research.
